

Alison McCarley Farrar

July 27, 1972 - August 5, 2012

Farrar, Alison McCarley, 40, of McCalla, died peacefully at her home Sunday, August 5, 2012 after a long battle with cancer. She was preceded in death by her mother, Patricia McCarley; her grandparents, Charles E. McCarley, Sr., Mildred McCarley, Louise Vann, and Betty and James Carter. She is survived by her sons, Brandon Grace and Garrett Farrar; her parents, Charles E. and Beverly McCarley; her grandmother, Sarah Bradley; her grandfather, Mason Owen Vann and a host of cousins, aunts, uncles and special friends. Alison was born July 27, 1972. She graduated from Minor High School in 1990 and attended the University of Alabama and Lawson State Community College, where she earned her degree in nursing. At age 8, Alison lost her mother. She was strong throughout her life always loving and caring for those around her. Her courage was evident during her last months battle with cancer. The family is thankful to the Oncology staff at St. Vincent's Hospital and special caregivers Mary and Clint Church, and lifelong friends Susan Shuman and Candice Moore. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, August 8, 2012 at 11:00 a.m. at Bessemer Brown Service Funeral Home with burial at Cedar Hill Cemetery, Bessemer. Rev. Jamie McAdams will be officiating. The family will receive friends Tuesday, August 7, 2012 from 5:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. at the funeral home.
