

Anna Lou Middlebrooks

August 5, 1940 - April 18, 2020

Anna Lou Middlebrooks, 79, of Adger, AL passed away April 18, 2020. Anna Lou Middlebrooks, also known as Granny and mom. She spent her life making homemade from scratch goodies. Goodies that are made old school. Everything she did was by hand, from biscuits and gravy to homemade cakes. She took great pride in her cooking, her clean home, her crafts and even more her family. In her early years she worked as a seamstress and baker. After her marriage to her late husband she stayed home tending to kids and being the wife she felt her husband deserved. She loved her husband unconditionally for over 40 years. She loved her kids with her whole heart. From the oldest to the youngest she loved as much as her heart would let her. She was able to enjoy great grandchildren for a short time. Even with her body unable to pick up and hold them she reached out with her heart and smiles. In her remaining years she felt heart broken not being able to get out and about, not being able to cook and clean like she used to. The immediate family stepped up and comforted her and let her know it was time for her to be cared for and to relax. She spent her years loving her family. She never wanted for or needed anything. She was deeply loved. All her time with the family will forever be missed and cherished. She will leave a void on earth with her departure that will never be filled. She was preceded in death by her loving husband, George Middlebrooks. She is survived by her brothers and sisters, Ken (Linda) Hollis, Skip (Carol) Hollis, Francis Fountain and Loretta Kendrick; her children, Donnie (Kim) McInish and Rodney (Laura) McInish; her grandchildren,

Dwayne McInish, Jennifer Webster, Michael Collins, Sharron McInish, Chris McInish and Stephanie McInish; her great grandchildren, Dalton, Nathan, Ryan, Collin, Logan, Kynlee, Kody, Dean, Gracie, Isaiah and Mailey. Graveside service will be private family only.
