“ Ms. Ammons was our well respected and beloved neighbor for several years. I enjoyed her company and was blessed with her beautiful smile and frequent laughter many times when we were visiting, whether over a meal or a morning cup of coffee. I have missed her terribly since my husband's business relocated us to SC.\r\nMy sincere condolences to her family. \r\nGodspeed to her on her journey and I pray that the family's faith will sustain them during their grief. She was an angel on earth and I feel privileged to have known her and enjoyed her for even a little while. \r\nBrooke
