“ I've known Barry almost my whole life. He was married to my sister a long time. He was a special person. When he was young he loved Triumph motorcycles and The Rolling Stones. Barry taught me how to ride a motorcycle. Barry and my brother Eddie started a rock band when they were about 15 years old,he loved making music.. I spent a lot of time moving equipment with him. He started chasing after my sister when they were young and my dad told him to leave and not come back until she was old enough and he did. I have a lot of good memories with Barry. He'll be missed.RIP
