“ As her first Great Granddaughter I was blessed beyond measures. Grandma was a lady of love-compassion- understanding and forgiveness. She touched my life in more ways than I have time to type. She taught me how to love. She showed me Christs love for me. She took me in when I felt alone and abandoned she loved not only me but my girls; her great-great grandchildren. She never judged me but reached out to me. She inspired me to be the mom I have become. Through her prayers and love she has helped mold me into the woman I am. She will be deeply missed however Grandma I look to Heaven and I smile and I rejoice for You have lived the life and returned home to our Heavenly Father! I know u are smiling I know u are rejoicing and I know ur heart pours out to the Lord for those u left behind. Do me one favor please hug my pops for me tell him I send a dragonfly his way. I love u!!
