“ I always thought Aunt Betty had a beautiful smile and friendly disposition. I remember visiting her in Bessemer when she had her birds. She loved animals. Rest in peace till we see u again

“ Betty Bailey was my grandmother, I called her Mammaw. I loved spending time at her house when I was a kid playing with her dog running around in the yard and occasionally getting in trouble with my cousins. She was always very loving with me, I wish I had spent more time with her in her older years, but I was blessed to be there to hold her hand and spend time with her before she went home.
I love you Mammaw
