“ So blessed Grandmother Cook was able to meet her Great-Great Grandson in this life. So many memories growing up right next to Grandmother.

She deeply loved her family. ❤️ It's such a blessing to know that because of His sacrifice, she is in Heaven with Jesus.

“ One of my favorite memories of visiting Alabama was going to Aunt Bett and Uncle Johnnie's house and sitting at the table snapping beans. I loved to listen to her talk. She always had a mischievous little twinkle in her eyes and loved her family so much! When she came to Austin for my wedding, I remember her turning her nose up at the fajitas for dinner and she kept saying "I think you should cut the cake now". ❤️. She will be missed by everyone who knew her.

“ My love of piano came from watching Grandmother play. I am so thankful that I will always feel connected to her through playing the piano, and playing the piano music that she saved for me. I will always love her.
