“ *In the garden of my heart, you bloomed,
A rose of grace, a spirit so groomed.
Your laughter was the sun's first light,
Chasing shadows, making everything bright.*

*You taught me strength with a gentle hand,
Guided my steps, helped me understand.
In your embrace, I found my home,
A haven of love, where I'd freely roam.*

*Through storms and trials, you stood so tall,
Your wisdom a beacon, a guiding call.
Now, the stars have claimed you, bright and true,
Yet in my soul, I carry you.*

*Your voice whispers in the rustling leaves,
A melody of love that never leaves.
Though our paths diverge, and you've taken flight,
Your love remains, an eternal light.*

*In dreams, I'll find you, soft and near,
A guardian angel, forever dear.
Thank you, Mom, for all you've done,
Your legacy lives in every dawn.*

I love you

“ To Phil and the family and brother, Steven Carnes. Charlene and I were friends in the Raimund community and I knew her dad Charlie and mom Mary, the family was active in Raimund Heights Baptist when we were in the youth group. She had a beautiful spirit and was willing to jump in and help out with projects. Praying for healing for the families and friends. May God's Grace and Mercy continue with you in the coming days.
