Yes the promise of the resurrection is very real. He was always with us. This came as a shock. He took his last breath in his son Drake's arms .It's just around the corner. I buried my daggy and I know you buried you parents Dot and Rayman and I loved them so did my mother. Dietra stay close to your brothers because I promise you it is a different feeling. It's like a knife has ripped up from top to bottom. Dietra I love you and always have and always will. I miss you so much and talking all the time. Thank you so much for posting about my brother. I love you always. Connie

“ I love my little brother. We watched grease over and over and over all the time. I took him to the boutwell auditorium to see his favorite wrestler Rick Flair. We went to Walt Disney World 5 times. Charlie always helped me with Courtney. We went to New Orleans. Everywhere I went Charlie would be right there with me. Charlie loved his family and his many friends. I remember Charlie playing his guitar with his friends and they formed a band called cadence. I would scream downstairs for them to quiet down but that didn't do any good. He always had his friends downstairs at Rock Mountain. There is so much more I can say and will say about my little brother at a later time. Like the time me and Beverly dressed him up like a little girl when he was about 8 months old. We would put a doll dress on him and lace socks and a bow in his hair and stroll him around the neighborhood. I will post more later I'm just too emotional to have a rational thought. I miss him so much. It's like a dream. I am shooked to the core. I love my brother.
