“ Hey gangi... Its kole, i havnt seen you in almost three years, and its 10:07 aug. 29, 2015, and i am 12 years old. things havnt been the same without you, reunions are quieter, after school isnt as fun. Gangi i want you to know that i love you so much, even though your not going to see this, it still helps me get rid of this sadness, since its been three years, almost, all the dreams of you have gone away, and when im allowed to make a wish like 11:11 or a shooting star, I always wish that i could at least have one more dream of you... Well, if I remember too, i'll do this again one day. Goodbye gangi. R.i.p i love you!!\ud83d\udd14

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to you Jennifer and all of your family. Gangi was unlike no other that's for sure. He was truly all about family and you don't see that so much in today's times. I knew I could count on gangi to cheer Landon on in baseball when I was in the booth I never had to worry your dad was always out there cheering the kids on and you will never know how much that truly meant to me and Landon. If there is anything we can do for you or your family please let me know...
