“ Charlie was a very kind man who loved his family and our Lord. I am especially thankful for the time and attention he gave my son, Cameron. He was more than an uncle. He was a friend. I will always cherish that friendship. Charlie, his children and then Tina was the answer to many prayers. There is no doubt Charlie is in paradise today. I pray the Lord sends a band of angels to comfort you, Charlotte, Tina, Darren and Debbie. May the peace of our Lord, always be with you! Blessings, Terri and Cameron
