“ I am so sorry for your loss of Christine. No doubt you will all remember how beautiful of a person she was inside & out. May God provide you with comfort through this difficult time of loss. I know you miss her everyday but keep in mind a promise God makes at John 5:28,29 that we could see her again one day through a resurrection! Certainly, that's a time we desperately need to come soon. We can see our loved ones again we've lost to death and the earth will be clear of death, sorrow, & pain. (Revelation 21:3,4) That's just a couple good things to look forward to although right now they may seem so far away. May your family be strong during this time and all share the needed love & support.
