“ I still remember when Bro Ben and Jo came to be Pastor at Woodstock Baptist Church, many years ago. Jo was the backbone of the family, one reason she had to keep Bro Ben straight. She was also a strength in the Church teaching or whatever she was called to do. Her and Bro Ben served many Churches around but after Bro Ben got hurt in the mines it changed the complexity of their family. Jo had to take a bigger role in the family after that and she stepped up and kept their family going. I was proud to call Jo and Bro Ben my Pastor and his partner Jo, my friends, my Brother and Sister, and one day soon we will see them again. Not to mention the great children they raised Alan now gone, Jeff and Jessica. Love y'all and praying for you just remember one day you will see them again!
