

Clintie Mae Cook

November 12, 1931 - September 5, 2019

Clintie Mae Cook, 87, of Hueytown, AL passed away September 5, 2019. She was a member of Hunter Street Baptist Church. She also worked with children and Sunday School Classes at other churches. Mae was a 1950 Minor High School graduate. She was a loving wife, devoted mother and proud Granna. She was preceded in death by her husband, Clarence Cook and her sister, Delories (Harris) Whitfield. Mae is survived by her daughters, Charlotte Cook and Cathy (Andy) Self; her grandchildren, Jared Self and Marcy (Kyle) Horton; great grandchildren, Deanna Madden, Georgia Madden and Dawson Horton. Funeral service Monday September 9, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. at Bessemer Brown Service Funeral Home with burial following at Highland Memorial Gardens. Pastor Lee Praytor will be officiating the service. The family will receive friends from 1:00 p.m. until service time at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers the family request that donations be made to Children's Hospital of Alabama.

Tribute Wall

JB

“ Clintie Mae was my first cousin on my dad’s side of my family. Although there is a big age difference, we stayed in touch for several years. I haven’t seen Clintie Mae in years or been in touch after she went to a nursing home. Her daughter, Charlotte called me to let me know she was in the hospital, and called again to tell me she had passed away. So sad when close family members loose touch with one another due to life changes. Clintie Mae is now in the arms of our Savior. Rest In Peace. With much love, Jody Butts

Jo Ellen (Culp) (Jody) Butts - September 17, 2021 at 10:51 AM