“ Please accept my sincere sympathy on the recent loss of your dear loved one. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. May the God of comfort be with you in this time of sorrow. May these words bring you hope, \“And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.\” (Revelation 21:4) This promise will be fulfilled one day, until then, may all your memories sustain you in the days to come.

“ I have plenty of memories of going to the lake and riding in the boat, camping and just plain out having fun. I will never forget him giving me the keys to his car and me not old enough to drive and he sent me to the store to get something that grandmother needed. That was the good ole days when you could do things like that. He will be missed. \nTill we meet again. GBNF.
