“ My dearest Granny Smith, I miss you already! I am so glad I was able to see you during Thanksgiving week but I am glad you are no longer in pain. I did tons of word search puzzles for you on Sunday. I know you had a big party the morning you arrived in heaven so I figured you wouldn't have time to work your puzzles. Enjoy your time with JC! I love you and I'm going to miss you. Your great granddaughter, Kayla

“ Granny Smith, Words can't describe how much you will be missed. Holidays won't be the same without you there. I'll never forget going to your little house in Bessemer and having to watch WWE because you couldn't miss your "WRASLIN'." And of course, the train. Who could forget the train that, basically, went through your front yard? I'll always remember trying to see your house from the interstate when we would go through Bessemer, and I always could! Granny Smith, you have meant so much to so many people. You will always be missed, but you will never be forgotten! I love you! -Jaime Preston
