“ This is from Sandy Johnson

I have many sweet memories of Fay singing in church as a young girl of ten years of age. My mother, Aunt Aline, introduced Fay to Buck. Heaven is looking sweeter every day. I am so sorry for your loss. A big hug to all of my precious cousins. Love, Sandy Johnson “ Fay was such a great friend. Back in the 80s I met her at the deli food town back then. Invited me to tent revival and cousin. I need to move and she introduced me to a friend of hers that a an apartment. She taught me a song by year. Church if God in Bessemer I played piano and she played organ. We sang together many times. As a young lady at 22 with a small child she was God sent. So many great memories and I am sad can't make it to celebrate her homecoming. I live away. Praying for all the family

She was a kind loving Aunt. Always there, always ready to listen, always ready with her arms open for tender loving care. She will always be in my heart. I Love each one of you and thoughts & prayers are with you. But I know without a doubt she is in Glory this day as she told me many times I'm ready to see
