

Ellissa "Ann" Canino

April 16, 1940 - January 4, 2023

We are heartbroken to announce our dear mother, grandmother and great grandmother, Ann Canino passed away at home on January 4th 2023 after an aggressive fight to beat Metastatic Breast Cancer. She was the owner operator of A&M tile in Bessemer. Her workmanship was known throughout the area and she was well respected within the construction circle. Ann's interests included bowling, sewing and an occasional puzzle. Her detailed sewing skills made her a sought after seamstress for custom alterations, wedding dresses, quilts and more. She had a second family within the Birmingham police department and considered many of the blue her own. She was proud to be part of such a large and loving family. She was predeceased by her Father Ellis Brook, Mother Elva Brook, Brothers Tommy Brook, Mack Brook and Ray Brook. Life Partner Michael McKinley. Grandchildren Hunter Jackson and Avery Jackson.

Ann is survived by her children; Jody Jackson (Danny), Chris Miller (Tim), Frank Canino, Jamie Canino (Jennifer). Stepson Mike McKinley (Crystal). Grandchildren; Jessica, Brandon (Heather), Mallory, Chase (Katie), Chad, Spencer, Lauren, Nick (April), Paige, Melissa (Quinn), Jacob, Jorja, Gabby, Tyler. Great grandchildren Ryder, Maverick, Harper, Brayden, Kylee, Delaney, Beau, Justin and Jasper. Siblings; Patsy Harris (Jimmy), Henry, Jane Cheeks, Nancy Keenon (Brian), Sandy Cooley, Susan Thompson (Daniel), Jimmy. Many nieces, nephews and friends.

The family wishes to thank the Nurses of Princeton Hospital and the Hospice team that joined in this incredible difficult journey to make her comfortable during her final days. Those who knew Ann well knew she had a love of butterflies. We know she is free to spread her own wings and fly with all those butterflies.
