“Marylin, Michael, & Morris: I am very sorry to hear of your mother (and my dear Aunt’s) passing, and I truly regret that I am not able to attend her funeral to share in this family time with you all. She was a very special person and always had nothing but kindness and tenderness for me, my brother and sisters, and all the rest of the family. She always made us homemade cookies when we visited and there were always hugs when we arrived, as well as when we departed. I will miss her. I am praying for her, and all of you during this time, especially. Robert and Monica Williams
