

Faye Gable Manderson

March 20, 1931 - November 19, 2021

Faye Gable Manderson, age 90, passed away peacefully on November 19, 2021. Faye was born on March 20, 1931 to Robert and Gladys Gable. Faye was married to David Manderson (deceased) and she was a life-long resident of Bessemer. She retired from Plantation Manor Nursing Home after 31 years of service. Faye never met a stranger. All who knew her would describe her as a loving, loyal and always willing to lend a helping hand. Other than her family, there was nothing more she loved than working in her yard. She will be greatly missed by her daughter, Linda Graf Rhodes, grandchildren, Shannon McFall Coker (Dave), Kim McFall Todd (Dennis), David Wayne Manderson, Jr. (Chelsie), Monica Waldrop (Jacob), her 15 great grandchildren and three great great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, David Manderson and son, David Wayne Manderson. At Faye's request there will only be a graveside service. It will be held at Cedar Hill Cemetery Tuesday, November 23, 2021 at 2:30 p.m. A special thanks to her family at Fair Haven Nursing Home.
