“ My Daddy was my hero. He taught me how to be a protector, a provider, a man and a father. He was the finest example of loyalty, integrity and grit. He taught me to honor God, Family, Country. Rest easy, Dad, I'll take the watch from here. I love you.

Frankie, I know what you are the rest of your family are going through. Frank was a good man and a good cousin to me. We have fished and hunted together many times. I will always remember your Dad as my "hand-me-down" man until I grew to be bigger than him. Yes, I will remember your Dad as a playmate when I was just a kid, and as a co-worker when I worked alongside of him during a summer session, and as a friend when we got older. May God bless his soul.

Words are so shallow when you try to write about such a man as Frank He was a kindhearted and loving friend who was always there for me, for 58 years. We fished, we traveled, we ate, we went to church, we sang in a quartet, we hunted, we laughed, we cried and we worshipped The Lord God together. What a man he was. I never heard him raise his voice. He was quiet, caring, humble and leaves us with no doubt, whatsoever, as to where he is at this moment. He is with his precious Savior, surrounded by friends and family. See you soon , my friend.
