

George Russell Middlebrooks

April 12, 2020

George Russell Middlebrooks, 80, of Adger, AL passed away April 12, 2020. George loved family more than anything. He loved helping others. He didn't care how others treated him, he would always give a helping hand. He spent many of his years in the NASCAR field working on his own car and others. He always smiled when he thought of those days. He missed being in the coal mines. He loved his job and his fellow workers. He had two nick names, at the coal mines, first "Red" then later in years it was "Dad". His first love above all is family. He'd do any and everything for his family, His greatest accomplishments was built around his family. He was the rock and strength for many of his family and friends. He was loved deeply and will be greatly missed. George is survived by his wife, Anna Lou Middlebrooks; his stepsons, Donnie (Kim) McInish and Rodney (Laura) McInish; his daughters, Ginger (Dennis) Marshall, Kim (Donnie) McInish, Marsha (Roy) Hawk and Allison Middlebrooks; his grandchildren, Dwayne McInish, Shannon McInish, Jennifer Webster, Michael Collins, Jeana Robinson, Lindsey, McKenna, Jesse, Stephanie, Christopher and a host of great grandchildren; his brother, James Donald Middlebrooks and his sister, JoAnn Johns. George was preceded in death by his parents, James Elton and Lola Bea Middlebrooks. Graveside services will be private family only.

Tribute Wall

“ Allidon and Stephnie I’m sorry for your lost. Thinking of you and your family ❤️

Laura Lacey - September 17, 2021 at 10:49 AM

“ So sorry for the loss. He will be missed.

Brenda Maddox - September 17, 2021 at 10:49 AM