

Helen Jeanette Burgin "MeeMaw" Carter

January 20, 1944 - September 1, 2019

On September 1, 2019, MeeMaw received her heavenly promotion while surrounded by family and friends. MeeMaw was a devout Christian that loved God, her family, friends, and enjoyed life to the fullest. Everyone who knew MeeMaw loved her dearly. She lived and worked in Bessemer her entire life and was a member of First Alliance Church. She was preceded in death by her daddy and mother, Joe and Betty Burgin. She is survived by her daughter Jerrie Lynn Carter DeFoor, son Jeff (Michelle) Carter, four grandsons Shawn (Kori) DeFoor, Shane (Brittany) DeFoor, Tyler and Tanner Carter, granddaughter Anna Carter, three great grandchildren Lexi, Colt, and Millie Claire DeFoor, brother Jody (Paula) Burgin, sister Jeanine (Dennis) Killian, her nieces and nephews, Misty Killian, Brad (Erika) Killian, Joseph (Laci) Killian, Joshua (Katie) Burgin, Ben Burgin, Shea Burgin and her great nieces and nephews. There will be a celebration of life for MeeMaw held at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, September 8 at Oasis of Praise, 6922 Pocahontas Road, Bessemer, AL 35022 officiated by Bishop Allan Kendrick. The family will receive friends from 2:00 p.m. until service time. The family would like to thank all of her friends, The Plantation Manor Nursing Home, and Southeast Hospice Group for the love and care provided to MeeMaw during her battle. In lieu of flowers, the family asks friends to make a donation to the Oasis of Praise Kids Department or any foundation to help find a cure for Alzheimer's.

Tribute Wall

GB

“ So happy that my precious friend has received her angel wings, but I miss her terribly!

Gay Bates - September 17, 2021 at 10:51 AM

TV

“ What a joy Jeanette was to all her family and friends. Although she will be missed here, she will live on through her children, grand children and all of her family. I've no doubt she is either singing with the angels, talking St. Peter's off or worshipping and praising Him.

Terri Vining - September 17, 2021 at 10:51 AM

BM

“ I remember her when we were kids. She and her brother would play with us. Such a sweet person

Bob Manderson - September 17, 2021 at 10:51 AM