“ I was so sorry recently to learn of Mr. Franklin’s passing. He was a kind gentleman, always with a smile on his face. He always had a kind and encouraging word to share. Mr. Franklin made me feel confident about my performance as St. Aloysius lunchroom manager, but we all know his daughter Susan, Mrs. Graham and Frannie were the brains. I’m grateful for the times he dropped off my daughter to her Nona’s. He made a wonderful impression on them both.

All my love and sympathy to his beautiful family.

Sincerely,

Dianne Moore
