“ I guess I have known Wesley and sweet Maxine for close to 60 years. They owned the store across the street from us when my children were small and would let all them come in out of the cold until the bus ran because it was the bus stop. I have loved the two of them for many years and pray for peace and comfort for their children Brenda, James and their families. There will be a great reunion day, "When We All Get To Heaven". Bill and I have been missing Wesley, since he couldn't come to church.
