“ Your mom and I have been friends for 30+ years. I remember her being pregnant with you. The love she had and has for you, while carrying you is indescribable. You were her rock at one time!! Even though I was there, the child (you) she was carrying at the time knew had her back from love!!! And vice versa. You will be dearly missed. I love you Ty. I loved you before you were born!! Give momma, daddy, siblings comfort and let them know your good!! Your free!! ❤️❤️❤️💙💙💙.

“ So many wonderful memories of sweet Ty when he was here at our home. Lots of Friday nights with me saying y’all get some sleep you have a game tomorrow know my eyes would close long before those young men do full of energy. Ty was one of the kindest of the kids friends & one of the 1st to call me mama coggins. I’ll never forget his beautiful infectious smile. Thank you Glynda & David for allowing Ty to be such a big part of our life as he was growing up
