“ Neicy will always be missed and never forgotten. She was a big part of my childhood. She used to always play cards with me. I remember her cutting coupons in the floor from the newspaper and she would get so mad when I stepped on them. I know she's finally back home with her mother.

“ I really loved her she was a very special young lady . She trusted and thought the best of everyone. Sometimes people took advantage of her and her big heart . She was a Christian that loved going to church she was always kind to me she just wanted everyone to love everyone . I know God welcomed this sweet angle home . She will be missed but praise God she is home now and has her new body . I will never forget her . Renee I'm so sorry you lost a sister. To her family that cared for her God Bless You All think of a good memory and hold on to it she loved her family and we all know her body is healed in Jesus name Amen
