“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear, loved one. Death is hard to deal with. Even Jesus gave way to tears when Lazarus died (John 11:35). But our Heavenly Father views death as an enemy and promises to put an end to it (1 Cor 15:26). We can look forward to being reunited with our loved ones again. “ Please accept my condolence. My mother passed last year and I found that memories and God's word have helped me a lot. I pray when I have sad days. I smile when I have good days, because she left me with any memories. Just remember our heavenly is a refuge for us. Psalms 62:8

“ Jerry greeted me everytime with a hug and a smile. He made me feel like family. He was just a happy, loving person....a trait that he passed on to his children. I am honored to have known him.

“ I have many fond memories of Jerry, growing up, he was an older cousin who I always respected like an Uncle, and he acted like one. Many happy family memories, that I will cherish forever. God got a good man, but many of us lost a great friend, cousin, uncle, dad and grandfather. I hope his stories and memory live in all our hearts and help the family to heal after such a great loss. Rest in peace cousin.

“ My deepest condolences to the Ball family. May you find comfort in the beautiful words found at Revelation 21:3 & 4, where God promises us that He will soon eliminate all pain, suffering and death. While we wait for this promise to be fulfilled, may the fond memories of Jerry comfort you and ease your pain.
