“ Faye was a faithful member of The Parkwood Church of God. She loved attending Sunday School. She will surely be missed. I know you have comfort knowing that to be absent in the body is to be present with the Lord.

“ Faye and I shared many hours at Bessemer Academy, where our children were in school. She and Harvey joined us at Little League when our boys played ; also band activities. Her girls participated in all the school events, as well as the Miss Bessemer contests I directed for the Lions Club. So many memories. God bless people like Faye Bunn. She was special. “ Pat and I always looked forward to seeing Faye at the beauty shop on Thursdays. Our friendship at Parkwood Church of God goes back over forty years. Faye was always pleasant and had a smile. I'll always remember her and Harvey coming to church together his last few years. They were faithful. I pray that God will be your strength during this time of adjustment and loss.
