“Joan was a wonderful person. Her family lived across the street from my family when she was a child, but I only knew her later in life. My aunt Lois ( who had been a Casaray) visited from Illinois a few years back and we ran into Joan at the church. They had been friends when they were growing up and were so happy to see each other. They were walking together in the church building holding hands like they must have done when they were little girls. It was so touching. I miss Joan. She was so good and she and Clayton were so sweet to me. Thank you, Patricia Dobbs Harris patdharris@bellsouth.net
