“ My brother David was the youngest brother of us four children, I never knew this day would come so soon. We lost our sister Lynn, little over a year ago and now David. David and I had the kind of relationship that we didn't half to say I love you very often we just knew it very much in our hearts. God said he would not put more on us then we can bear but this is so hard. The Bible said Jesus wept now his family is crying and he is dancing in heaven with his father, mother, sister, and other love ones that went on before him. Dancing and making a joyful noise before the Lord, What a time he must be having. If I could bring him back I could not for he feels no more pain, no sorrow. He is in his new home built just for him. God said I go away to prepare a place for you that there I maybe you maybe also. David is walking those streets of Gold ! WE WILL MISS YOU GREATLY AND LOVE YOU ALWAYS ! Run and play, hunt and fish, enjoy hearing the word of God straight from His very mouth. \r\nYour loving sister
