“ So sorry. His father, Starshal was my mother's first cousin. My mother's mother was a Maddox married to William Burton Woods. Along with mom and dad, I remember often visiting with Starshal and Mrs. Maddox many times in my childhood.\r\n\r\nMay our Heavenly Father bless and keep all the family in this time of sorrow.

“ I was so saddened to hear of Kenneths passing! He will always have a special place in my heart because he came into my life at a time when he was needed most. As a teenager at 7th Street Baptist Kenny took a lot of personal time with me helped put me on the right path and after a youth retreat to my parents place on the Warrior River I made my public profession of faith. My prayers are with you and your entire family at this time Vicky! May God bless you and give you comfort!

“ Ken was a very wise DOM. SOMEHOW he always knew when Tony and I were getting tired, and about to give up, he always knew what to say to get us back on our feet. I'm sure he did it for many others as well. We will truly miss him.
