“ Kev
Your hair looks great and I know you got caught giving yourself a haircut.
You will not have to look like Clark Kent ever again
I'm gonna miss you

“ The last time we saw Kevin he had a stack of old concert ticket stubs from back in the day. He went through the stack sharing his experiences from each concert and was just beaming the whole time. It makes me happy to know that he found something to bring him so much joy in his short time here on earth. Love you Kevin. See you later.
