“ My sincere condolence to the Boles family and friends. \“Those of our people who have died will live again! Their bodies will come back to life. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead.\” (Isaiah 26:19) May the promise of a resurrection, found throughout the Holy Bible, comfort and sustain you.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family as you cherish the precious memories of Granny Boles. Granny lived simply, loved generously, cared deeply, spoke kindly, and left the rest to God. \n\nGranny was a breathe of sunshine; her love of God, family, and friends was contagious. She was an inspiration to all who knew her as she continued to faithfully attend church through thick and thin to the end. We always looked forward to her \“special\” bear hug and heartfelt \“I love you.\” We will greatly miss her here on earth but look forward to seeing her in heaven.

“ I just wanted to let you know that I thought a lot of Lorene and am sorry to hear of her passing away. She and I had so much fun when we played on the Woodstock Women's Softball team where she played the position of pitcher and I third base. \r\n\r\nWill be keeping your family in prayer at this time.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family. \r\n\r\n\r\nBig Momma, now blind and some seventy plus years, sat on the front porch. She didn't move, just sat silently.\r\n\r\n\r\nI asked her if she was OK. She raised her head, smiled, and gave her usual response. 'Yes, I'm meaner than ever'.\r\n\r\n\r\n'Have you ever looked at your hands,' she asked. 'I mean really looked at your hands?'\r\n\r\n\r\nBig Momma smiled and related this story:\r\n\r\n\r\n'Stop and think for a moment about the hands you have. I have used my hand all my life to reach out and grab and embrace life.\r\n\r\n\r\nThey threw the ball when I pitched for the softball team.\r\n\r\n\r\nThey held my Bible, folded in prayer, and raised to praise God. They held my husband and wiped my children's tears when they cried.\r\n\r\n\r\nThey were loving and gentle as I held my newborn sons and daughter.\r\n\r\n\r\nThey held my children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, and clapped for their achievements. They have warmly clasped the hands of fellow believers and pounded their backs as I gave them a hug and told them I loved them.\r\n\r\n\r\nThese hands have firmly grasped my husband's arm so he can safely guide me along.\r\n\r\n\r\nBut more importantly it will be these hands that God will reach out and take when he leads me home. And with my hands He will lift me to His side and there I will use these hands to touch the face of God.\r\n\r\n\r\nI, too, want to touch the face of God and feel His hands upon my face.\r\n\r\n\r\n~Author Unknown
