“ a wonderful lady, much admired by me for many years, knowing her as a friend, a member of God’s family, ss teacher for many years, and a ss classmate, and a great friend, with a great family, of which I love each of them. She is where she lived to go be with Jesus, of this we are sure. We have missed her at church during these last years, love you Lucille.\r\nDot

“ We knew this day would come but we are never quite ready for it. Aunt Lucile was a special woman and truly loved her whole family. When my Mom passed away she volunteered to be my Mother. I will never forget that moment or forget her. I am so sorry for your loss but you know she’s in the greatest place. I love you all, Carol
