“ We remember the first time we met Mark, working, of course, in the Fellowship Hall at The Army. His smile was contagious and the work he and his crew were doing at our home church brought tears of gratitude to my eyes. Only our gracious Father God knew what lie ahead for the Wade family. That our home church where Jim and I first felt our calling into the ministry would be the place where Mark renewed his relationship with Jesus Christ. We're so thankful for the short time we knew Mark and now we can continue to know him through his loving family. What a beautiful legacy he has left us!
