“ You knew all my secrets and story. You gave me strength and courage to press on. I felt safe and loved when you were near. I miss you so much... our long talks, sharing a meal, joking around but most of all I miss your hugs and laughter.

“ We were so sorry to hear of your loss. But, at ease with the fact that Mrs. Maudame is now resting with the Lord. She surely has fought the fight, won the race, and is now getting her just reward. May God bless each of you, and may her memories help heal your broken heart.
