“ I have many childhood and adult memories of Uncle Wayne. Family was so very important to him. He was there for me through some very hard times. He was there and supportive when Dad passed and through Thomas’ heart surgery and passing. He was a comfort and strength for me. I will miss him very much. I can only keep thinking that he is now with his Lord, and what an awesome reunion he is having with family and friends that he loved dearly. Love and prayers, Tina

“ I have so many memories of my Uncle Wayne. The two that stand out the most are- he always made the boys play with me, whatever I wanted to play even if it was dress up. Second he would ask me to scratch his back for a quarter, that was a lot of money for a 5 year old ! He's been a Blessing to me.
