“ I'm so sorry to hear about Aunt Paula's passing....but happy for her too. She has a brand new body and is with her loved ones!!! Imagine the joy! I have so many wonderful memories of her....singing "fa so la (sacred harp) with her and Aunt Velma. And the two of them came to Nashville to see me on a TV talent show!! I always remember her being so sweet and fun! I look forward to seeing her again one day!!! Love and blessings to all the family. She lived a wonderful long life! She was indeed a blessing to me.
Love and hugs to Wayne and all the family,

“ Gail and I are so sorry for Aunt Paula's passing. She was a wonderful aunt and went out of her way to see us when we visited Hueytown. You are the perfect son to take care of her when she needed help. Yes, you will miss her but be comforted that she has no pain or suffering.
