

Perry H. Redmond, Sr.,

April 6, 1927 - April 6, 2013

Perry H. Redmond, Sr., age 86 went on to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on April 6, 2013. He was preceded in death by his wife, Betty Ann Higginbotham Redmond. Perry was a graduate of Phillips High School, served in the U.S. Army, and graduated from Auburn University. He worked as an electrical engineer for Rust Engineering for 35 years. Perry was a member of Pleasant Ridge Baptist in Hueytown for 50 years, serving as a deacon, a teacher in the 5th grade Sunday school, and later named a Deacon Emeritus. His life was about honoring God, loving his family, and serving others. He was an avid Auburn sports fan. He was a member, counselor, and board member of the Alabama Grief Support Services for several years. He is survived by two daughters: Peggy (Dan) Richey of Cropwell, and Elizabeth (Wayne) Bush of Clay; three sons: Perry, Jr. (Ann) of Maryville, TN, Paul (Jackie) of Hueytown, and Bruce of Hueytown; eight grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

Services will be Tuesday, April 9, 2013, at 11:00 a.m. at Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church. The family will receive friends from 10:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. with Dr. Rick Patrick officiating. Burial will follow at Forest Hills Cemetery in Birmingham. In lieu of flowers memorials may be sent to the Callahan Eye Foundation.
