“ Dear Alan and family, \r\nYou have had to watch as Ralph's flesh slowly failed him. There have been some very hard times but Ralph is with the Lord now, at peace. What a wonderful comfort! He leaves his family a legacy of love, respect and wonderful memories. You have been and will remain in our prayers. We were honored to have known Ralph. God bless.

“ To the family of Mr. Acker, please accept my condolences. The loss of a loved one is very devastating. It is comforting to know we can reach out to God in prayer, for He is called at Psalm 65:2 \r\nThe Hearer of prayers.\r\nThe help God supplies does make a difference. While it does not eliminate the pain, it makes it easier to bear.
