“ Grandpa Ralph was the only grandfather I knew or remember. It's upsetting to find out he has passed and none of us knew until now. The last time I saw Grandpa Ralph was when Grandma Tiny died. We all miss him. I would have loved to have had the chance to say goodbye to him. \r\n\r\nRest in peace Grandpa Ralph.

“ My heartfelt sympathy goes out to the Burroughs family. God truly loves him and His promises in the Bible of no more sickness and pain after death applies to him along with many other promises such as Revelation 21:3,4. May Jehovahs spirit help comfort the family and help them hold on to the strength they need to get through this difficult time. He will truly help you. (Isaiah 41:10)
