“ Ray will be sorely missed and was fun to have around when he visited my shop to talk guns and share life's thoughts. My prayers and deepest sympathies are for his wife and close family members. He was one of a kind and gone way too soon.

“ When I told my friends and family about my lose many ask why I still call him TSgt....because that who he is to me. He was a mentor, a leader, and father figure to me.
When I came into the military I showed up a little know it all young airmen. It would have been easy for him to just check me off as one of those guys. He didn't he was hard on me but he was fair, and it was always to mold me into the man I am today...I see that now! I remember sitting in his office telling him my girlfriend at the time was pregnant. I thought my life was over, he was the first person I told even before my mom, he ensured me I would be okay. He again mentored me through this and supported me. To the Lucky family please know he lives on in me and many others. I pray this comforts you. Thank you TSht Lucky....thank you!

“ I wish we could of had more time with you Ray. You will be missed by all that knew you. I will always remember you through out all the remaining years of my life and the one time we went hunting. It was a very memorable and special day cause you went with me. We laughed and had a great time going and coming back. Im very sorry for all the other family and my sister Deanna during this time of grief. Rest in peace Buddy and Brother in law.
