“ Not only did he love my mom & his very own children beyond measure, he loved my siblings & I, and was there through all the challenges that came with us without question. Even more though, was his love for all of his grandchildren! Maybe that's because he was a "big kid" himself alot of times...either way his face would light up like a Christmas tree when they came into the room. Always patient, always kind, he will be missed by so many!
