PS

I miss you Uncle Gene. I have had you heavily on.my.mind recently. I remember as a little girl growing up as the daughter of your brother James A. Hill, you would make sure to visit us at Granny's early every morning before we had to leave. I can still see you drinking your cup of coffee and taking the time to eat some cooked eggs and toast with us. Granny always made sure there was plenty to eat. I never knew you had kept a picture of me as a child in your wallet all of these years until recently. Thank you for that. Now, you don't have to hurry to see us off and hurridly drink your coffee before going to wwork.You can always take your time now and see us every day all day. You are missed so much by all of us. I love you Uncle Gene. Your Neice Pam Schmidt.
