“ Ronnie will be cherished and remembered in death as he was in life. His spirit will shine through all those he touched. He is a wonderful grand daddy and Adry will always remember his smile and love. I am so sorry for your loss but remember there is a piece of him in all of you that lives on. He loves you all dearly. Love and Prayers

“ Ronnie was my first brother-in-law. He married into a family of 5 women and he didn't run! My Mother used to call him Burr-Head because he had a military crew-cut. I remember having lots of good times with him and our family. The last time I saw Ronnie was when his first wife, my sister died. May Ronnie rest in peace.
