“ I loved Sister Ruth! I met her at Oasis of Praise and had the pleasure of eating breakfast with my wife Martha and myself. She was a remarkable Saint that loved the Lord, Jesus Christ and the Holy Ghost. Ruth was dedicated Christian that rarely missed attending church. She always kept a smile in spite of her physical difficulties and never complained. She was a light to us all and an example of Faith. I had the pleasure of her company. Ruthellen, you blessed me many times with your presence and Love! She was perhaps the best example of a truly dedicated and beautiful Christian lady. I know today she walks with God in Heaven! Sister you will be missed!
