ME

“ *What a beautiful woman, Mrs. Fowler was. I am very sorry to read of your loss. With her accomplishments, her love and joys, she was an amazing woman! I won't pretend to know what you're going through, but what has helped me deal with the loss of those I love, is turning to the Scriptures, something that has been a real source of comfort. One Scripture that gives me hope is, John 11:25, which says, *"Jesus said to her: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.\" I hope that this verse will also comfort you and, I hope you and your family can get through this difficult time. Please accept my condolences for the loss of your beloved wife, mother, grandma and friend. “ Sweet Sandra,I could start by saying I'm sorry for all the times I failed to be there for you but from all the times you told me not to worry about it I won't. You always said take care of my family and the children.I love you so and know we will meet again.I always felt kindred spirits with you,maybe because we both love with all our hearts and strenth. Ed,kids,grandkids and greatgrands have always been your life,you have planted many seeds of love.I can see it so strong in each one of them.You will be missed but never forgotten.Rest high on your mountain,no more pain or worries.Blessed to know and love you!
