“ Sheryl Dianne is my sister, its been going on 12 years, since she left this earthly world and I still miss her everyday, there has been so many things I wanted to share and discuss with her over these past 11+ years. I have her beloved dog Tucker he's 13 now when his time to cross the rainbow bridge comes, I will raise him in my arms and give Tucker back to my beloved sister, while they wait on me to arrive.

“ I worked with Sheryl for several years and considered her a dear friend. She was so smart! Yet what I love most about her was her kindness and gentleness, always thinking of others before herself. I will always treasure her friendship, and you will certainly be in my prayers.
