“ Uncle Clark was my husbands father, Claude Carroll's, twin brother. He became so special to me and my boys when my Rodney was in the hospital 13 years ago. He came every day he had off and would spend the day with us at Shelby Hospital. Even after my heart passed away Uncle Clark called and checked on me and “the boys” as he always said. He always had a huge smile when we would stop by to see him at The Pig. He will always be a beautiful memory and wonderful Uncle to remember!! We Loved You Uncle Clark.... Wanda, Eddie and Zac Carroll!!

“ Greg, Dale & I are so sorry for the loss of your Dad. What few times we were around him he kept us laughing. I remember him coming to UAB to visit me when I broke my femur bone in my left leg. He got ready to leave he said he thought if he would jump out the window he'd be at his car so he wouldn't have to walk so far. We really got a good laugh out of that. And we still do every time we think about him. Know that you're in our thoughts and prayers! Love always, Dale & Deb(Giles)Collins 🤔🤔

Greg, Clark was a special friend. As a young boy and teenager, Clark was my best friends' (Greg's and Glen's) dad. He seemed to always enjoy the times that my brother and I spent with his boys. I regret that as I got older, I didn't keep in touch with Clark like I should have. But my admiration and love for Clark never ended. Greg, I share your pain of losing a special person. I send my love and deepest sympathy. DeWight C.

“ Uncle Clark will certainly be missed at my house. He didn't come to visit me often but when he did get here, I sure enjoyed his company. There was hardly anything he couldn't tell me about the Carroll family. When I was growing up we lived in Clanton and I had many hospital stays in Birmingham. My parents were not able to visit me everyday but Uncle Clark showed up every other day with some type of surprise just so I had company every day. That meant so much to me as I was growing up. Thank goodness I had many occasions to be able to tell him how much those visits meant to me. He was a kind and caring soul that is missed already and will forever be. I love you all and I am so sorry for your loss. RIP Clark and give my Momma a hug and kiss for me.
